

FAQ's

Common Facts and Questions.

When is ARTour?

North Tahoe Arts is pleased to announce ARTour 2019 is on schedule for mid-summer, July 20-21st and July 27-28th. It all gets started with a kick-off celebration at the North Tahoe Arts Center in Tahoe City with a meet the artist gallery opening reception on July 13. from 5-7pm.

What is ARTour?

ARTour is an open studio event featuring artists from the Truckee-Tahoe region. In its 19 th year, ARTour is a great way to meet artists in an intimate and personal setting—their studios. ARTour 2012 will feature 28 new and returning artists. No matter your style or passion for art, there will be something for everyone. The genres and mediums of artists' work include watercolors, pastels, oils and acrylics, glass art and woodworking, custom jewelry, photography, printmaking, ceramics and mixed media.

Where is ARTour?

Open studios will be spread throughout the region, from Truckee to Incline Village, Kings Beach, Tahoe City and the West Shore. ARTour attendees are encouraged to pick up the ARTour brochure, which features artist bios, samples of their artwork, maps and directions to the studios. The brochure is your guide to ARTour. Plan a day of touring Lake Tahoe and Truckee, while enjoying great regional art. The brochures will be available in June and can be picked up at North Tahoe Arts Center located at 380 North Lake Boulevard in Tahoe City and from partnering businesses throughout the region.

Do Artists take Credit Cards?

All artists' will have their work for sale and many, but not all, are able to accept credit and debit cards.

Am I eligible to be a participating artist?

You are eligible if you meet the requirements below:

If you are a North Tahoe Arts member or join now

You have paid the participation fee.

You have a valid Seller's Permit for your state.

You have a working studio within the Truckee-North Lake region or have arranged to share space.

You have original art created by you available for sale each day of ARTour.

You have been successfully juried into ARTour. (first time participants only)

I don't see my question. Email execdir@NorthTahoeARTs.com